Market Power Series - Do We Care More About Rates or Regulators?

During this exciting webinar, you will learn:

- Why rates are doing what they're doing, and is that going to change?
- Reading the CFPB and their enforcement actions.
- What are lender CEOs concerned about?

Our Speaker - Rob Chrisman

Rob Chrisman's daily market commentary on industry developments is one of the most widely read and admired publications in the mortgage industry. Rob began his career in mortgage banking 30 years ago in the secondary department of First California Mortgage. Since that time he has run secondary for Standard Financial, CMG Mortgage, and RPM Mortgage and was president of OnCall Mortgage. In addition to publishing a blog for both the Mortgage Industry and a new blog for Real Estate agents, he is currently an advisor to STRATMOR Group's Capital Markets practice, is on the board of directors of Peoples Bank, Inheritance Funding Corporation, International City Mortgage, and the California MBA. Rob holds a BS from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, and an MBA from UC Berkeley.
